

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of Illinois

TO ALL ATTORNEYS, ESPECIALLY THOSE RECENTLY ASSIGNED TO REPRESENT PRISONERS IN THEIR PRO SE CIVIL RIGHTS CASES:

THE COURT URGES YOU TO ATTEND “ANATOMY OF A PRISONER CIVIL RIGHTS CASE” (A WONDERFUL INTRODUCTION)-AND/OR “PREPARATION FOR TRIAL AND TRIAL” TWO SPECIAL SEMINARS DESIGNED TO ASSIST ASSIGNED ATTORNEYS IN THESE INTERESTING BUT OFTEN CHALLENGING CASES AND ALL ATTORNEYS WITH AN INTEREST IN SUCH CASES.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2017
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURTHOUSE
219 S. DEARBORN ST. COURTROOM 2525

- 1. “ANATOMY” 9:30 A.M. TO 12:00 NOON
- 2. “PREPARATION FOR TRIAL AND TRIAL”: 1:00 P.M. TO 3:30 P.M.

Many assigned attorneys have attended “Anatomy” and may wish to attend only “Preparation for Trial.” When you RSVP, please indicate which seminar you wish to attend: one or both

THESE SEMINARS ARE FREE!!! LUNCH WILL BE SERVED. MCLE CREDIT FOR EACH SEMINAR

PLEASE ADVISE YOUR ASSOCIATES, ESP. THOSE WORKING ON THE CASE, TO ATTEND.

FACILITATORS (very experienced in this field):
James Chapman, Illinois Institute for Community Law
Alan Mills, Uptown People's Law Center

SPACE IS LIMITED (the topics are very popular, esp. for recently assigned attorneys)

Contact Jim Chapman for reservations or with questions.

E-mail: JamesPChapman@aol.com or 312/593-6998.

Please indicate which seminars you want to attend (e.g. both or "Preparation for Trial and Trial" only.)

Everyone is welcome: attorneys, legal assistants, law students, even if you have not been court-assigned or do not yet have a case.